

June 2009 MPHC Newsletter

Thanks to all of the exhibitors who came out and made the Memorial Day Show a big success. Not only did we have our faithful MPHC members, but we also had exhibitors from Kansas, Oklahoma, Virginia, Arkansas, Illinois, North Dakota, Florida, Ohio, Indiana and Minnesota. On Saturday, May 23rd, we had 438 entries; Sunday, May 24th (the Youth/Amateur POR), we had 335 entries, and on Monday, May 25th, we had 342 entries.

Below is a message from Greg Tambke, Show Chairman:

Thanks to the entire show team, Bryan Bergeson, Mike and Julie Engelbrecht, Jackie Mead and Carolyn Case. Also, thanks to Galen and Marilyn Seehafer and Pat Case for serving up the exhibitor barbeque. I smoked the meat, but Pat and Galen cooked the burgers and dogs and served it all up.

Also, special thanks to Mike Preuss for being the "Trail Engineer" and getting the trail set up for us. Also, thanks to the many others that helped set up and clean up the trail pattern in rapid fashion. It was a great show, and a special thanks needs to go to all of the exhibitors that made that happen.

Show Manager – Greg Tambke

Once again, thank you to all of the sponsors who made the Exhibitors Barbeque possible. The food was great and enjoyed by all.

On June 13th & 14th, MPHC held another great show at the Boone County Fairgrounds in Columbia, MO. Debby Neer and Allison Mitchell co-chaired the show and did a great job. It was really good to see so many new walk trot exhibitors. These young members are the future of MPHC.

Debby and Allison want to thank all of the exhibitors who came out and showed their horses:

As co-managers of the June 13th & 14th MPHC horseshow Allison and I want to thank all of the exhibitors who made the show a success and a very special thank you to all of you who helped put the show on. The following people did a great job: Bryan Bergeson, Ring Steward; Lisa Maxwell & Shirley Bergeson, Announcers; Kara Maxwell, Eileen Mack & Suzanne Cridlebaugh, Announcers Assistants; Jackie Mead, Show Secretary. Those who helped set up obstacles for the trail class were: Mike Pruess, Bill St.Clair, Larry Cridlebaugh, Brett Harrison, Stephen Backs, Miranda Fiser and Megan Seehafer. We really appreciate your help, we couldn't have done it without you!! The show went very well and we hope everyone had a good time.

See you at the next show.

If you haven't done so already, please check out the new and improved Missouri Paint Horse Club website. The new website has a lot of glitz and it is very impressive. A new feature includes a random selection of 10-15 photos scrolling on the home page. In addition, all candid photos taken at the May show are available. You may access the website at <http://www.missouripainthorseclub.com>.

The point standings for year-end are now posted and will be updated after each show.

** Important Reminders ****

Please note that the show bill has been changed regarding the placement of the trail class and starting time. Butch Maxwell sent the following message to the Board:

Thank you to everyone that responded to the online vote. Every effort was made to make sure everyone knew about the vote. The placement of trail will be changed as will the start time. The 8:00 AM start time has been approved by the APHA and will change beginning with the July 18 & 19 weekend.

*Thank you
Butch*

2009 APHA World Show Dates

June 21 – July 4, 2009

In 2009, APHA will again host a two-part World Championship Show series with events in both the summer and fall. Both world-class events will take place at the Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth, Texas. Kicking off that annual summer show, June 24-July 4, 2009, will be an expanded program of Novice Youth World Championship classes. Starting in 2009, all Novice Youth class winners will receive World Championship titles and buckles for their efforts. The show will also feature APHA's proven and popular line-up of World Championship Youth events, along with a select number of Amateur and Open classes. These classes will include Cutting, Reining, Roping and Working Cow Horse. Team Sorting and Team Penning will also be featured.

** IN THE SPOTLIGHT ****

Although the rain at the Memorial Day show managed to make it somewhat difficult to get around, it certainly didn't hinder the Cumpton twins. As a matter of fact, Clint and Clay might convince you that for two little boys, rain, mud and bicycles may even be more fun than showing horses. You might agree after watching the following video provided by Katie Tambke, who captured their antics on her cell phone.

Tricia Bruce-Novak reported that at the Memorial Day show that a show headstall was stolen. The bridle has a California Western Pleasure bit and has one inch reins. Also stolen was a twisted wire snaffle on a working headstall with reins. The bridles were in a four-rack canvas bridle bag. If anyone has any information regarding these items, please contact Jackie Mead at 816-792-5827 or email Jackie at paint783@wmconnect.com.
