

MAY 2010 MPHC NEWSLETTER

The MPHC show season has officially begun! The weather was a little uncooperative, but, thanks to the new covered practice arena at the Boone County Fairgrounds, the kickoff show was a great success with 404 entries on Saturday and 379 entries on Sunday.

The show was sponsored by the Missouri Junior Paint Horse Club. Below is a message from the Show Manager, Sue Hilton, who is also the MjPHC youth director. Please take the time to thank Sue for all of the time and energy she puts in to make our Missouri youth club one of the top youth clubs in the nation:

We're off and running - the 2010 show season has started and with a bang! (Thunder, lightning and rain too). It was so much fun to see all the familiar faces, but even more exciting to see all the new faces and meet new people. MPHC should be proud of their accomplishments; I think that we have one of the best club shows around. Thanks to everyone that helped - most of all thanks to the youth and their parents that gave up of their time during the show to help it run so smoothly. Trail helpers were more than I've ever seen; those courses went up fast and we were able to keep the show moving. Megan, you and your trail bosses do a heck of a job setting up courses. Jackie, Sarah, Mom and Brian - thanks for all your hard work in the entry booth, show office and ring. Thanks to the additional helpers in the show office: Colt Cumpton, Miranda Fiser, Chris & Paige Hoffmann. You all put in long hours and are very efficient in your jobs. See you all Memorial Day weekend; I'm sure it will be even bigger and better!!

Sue Hilton, May 1 & 2 Show Manager

MjPHC 2010 COMMUNITY PROJECT

The MjPHC is doing a 2010 Community Project to benefit Missourians in need and need your help. MjPHC members will be collecting canned goods at the Memorial Day show. They would appreciate your contributing to this worthwhile cause. Please remember to bring your canned goods to the Memorial Day show. A drop off location at the arena will be announced. The MjPHC will see that these items go to needy, deserving Missourians.

In addition, MjPHC will be collecting coats (slightly used or new) at the Labor Day show. MjPHC would appreciate your help in donating both canned goods and coats to help out others who are less fortunate.
