

MISSOURI PAINT
HORSE CLUB
2011 JANUARY
NEWSLETTER

Thank you, Awards Banquet Chairperson Jimmie Franklin for a first class evening at Lodge of Four Seasons. Throughout the year, Jimmie had the responsibility of contracting the hotel, selecting a menu, preparing table decorations, purchasing door prizes and developing entertainment for the evening. Socializing and creative Bingo games topped off the night. Thanks to Jimmie's set-up crew: Annie, Darin, Sharon, Cody & Ralph.

Some 120 Paint horse enthusiasts gathered to recognize and honor winners following a year of exhibiting their Paint horses at Missouri Paint Horse Club 2010 shows. What a great job done by Awards Committee Megan Seehafer and Mary Stocker. Not only did Megan and Mary handle the actual presentations at the event but did the advance selection of a wide choice of awards and prepared an Awards Option Selection booklet from which recipients picked their choices. It was a fun night of socializing as well.

In addition to honoring winning horses and riders, in-coming MPHC President Kim Garrett presented out-going President Butch Maxwell with a custom made Cowboy Bronze trophy in appreciation of his four year tenure as MPHC President. Butch was also awarded a humorous Undeclared in 2010 trophy. Butch, thank you for your selfless time and contributions to the Club.

While on the podium, Maxwell recognized and presented trophies to MPHC Show Committee members: Bryan Bergeson, Clea Bobbitt, Kim Garrett, Jackie Mead, Megan Seehafer and Greg Tambke. He complimented this Committee for the hours spent driving to and attending numerous meetings throughout the year resulting in decisions that made 2010 a successful year for us.

APHA National Director Nominees Lisa Maxwell and Olin Parker were introduced. These two Paint horse and MPHC active and capable candidates will be submitted to APHA and will appear on our ballot sent to APHA members in March.

A highlight of the evening was a slide show presentation set to music. Prepared by Joyce Conklin the several hundred candid shots taken at MPHC shows scrolled over a big screen. If you attended a Missouri Paint Horse Club horse show in 2010, you were on the 'big screen.' Great job, Joyce, and thank you for all the time you put into this project. Let's do it again next year!

2010 MjPHC Youth President Colt Cumpton recapped Youth Club activities with a 'Year In Review' power point presentation. Again, in 2010, the Missouri Junior Paint Horse Club was honored as American Junior Paint Horse Association Youth Club of the Year. 2011 MjPHC officers: President-Colt Cumpton, Vice President-Nicole Bricker, Secretary-Courtney Hall, Treasurer-Renee Sanford, Miranda Fiser-Reporter under the direction of Youth Advisers Sue Hilton and Chris Cumpton. The youth club developed criteria and presented a first-time and on-going MjPHC Member of the Year award, the recipient of which was Colt Cumpton. Very professional presentation, Colt, and congratulations on being named Member of the Year. In addition, MjPHC held a live auction benefiting MDA, an AjPHA President project. Russ Conklin, appreciate your Auctioneering abilities in helping make this happen. Colt also announced information regarding the MjPHC 'Preparing For Success' clinic, April 8 – 10, at Misty River Equestrian Center. Butch Maxwell voiced a thank you to all our youth, their parents and the dedicated efforts by Sue Hilton and her leadership team. Your efforts are not only noticed by Missouri members but nationally also.
